

Measure P

Measure P is unfair to Pittsburg families who pay for their own housing and should not subsidize housing for paid staff.

Like other working families, Pittsburg taxpayers already pay too much on too many taxes.

The proposal to subsidize district employee personal housing is not about your students' education. Bonds are intended for school construction for the students. Taxpayers should not have to pay long-term interest costs for employees housing.